I can recommend Mrs. Limehaugh's Compound Sirup vi8pikenard and Tar. I have been slok for a long time, have best several doctors, and they failed in inv rase. I was very much swotten and had a several cough. After using your medicine a while I was cured of my cough and relieved of not swelling. My complexion is good, and now I am doing my own work. My youngest child bad a had cough for a long time, so severe that her breasthone was spring from several coughing in the shape of a chicken bone, but she la now well and looks well. She had been treated by the doctors for a long time. Link they all failed to cure her cough. Now she is well.

Any persons suffering with any of the diseases mentioned above can be accommodated with board and government. I have distrible rooms for families or studies gentlement desiring private bearding.

For myself, more than fifty years ago, I was educated in the good old school of Washingscutiments of religiou and of sluty, with regard to my allegiance to my country, to her Coustitution, her nuthority, and her la vs.

Whether it were best to stand by them nev er occurred to me; I only felt that it was right and must be done. Why! I should just a soon have thought of inquiring whether it was my interest to shelter and protect my father and my mother, as of asking whether it we should be relected by single districts, and it is in interest to defend my country. Why loyalty to my God, to my country, and to my mother are all of a piece. I must be loyal to Howell Colb, and other leading secessionists them. Many of these thoughts, in detail and in various other connections, had often been casnally entertnined; but not till then did the en secret cause of all our troubles stand forth great difficulty in impressing the minds and injuginations of the young (and the millions of the only partially educated are always children) with an abstract idea-with the invisible sllent, awful majesty of a government of las Some visible expocent of it seems absolutely necessary. A judge, a sheriff, a court-house a prisoners' dock, strike more terror into an evil-doer than all he ever heerd of jails or executions. And no doubt loyalty to a visible sovereign, especially if a beneficent ruler, and a lovely person, and, nhove all, a true womau, is a much easier and more natural sentiment and a much more ardent passion than lovally to a written constitution. But irreverence and irreligion can utterly undermine all that, as the French Revolutio proved. And even the glowing loyalty of all the English to their motherly Queen is much more based upon principle and religion than upon sentiment; it is much more cherished by education, example, and habit than hy imagi-

I suppose there are now about fifty thousand Federal troops in Kentucky. There are forty Kentucky regiments of loyal troops raised and being raised. Probably one hundred thousand Federal troops will be under arms in his State within thirty days from this time. Meantime our frequier—East, South, and West— State within thirty days from this time. Meantime onr frontier—East. South, and West—(at least one thousand miles) is occupied or menaced by the Confederate troops now amounting to perhaps 50,000 (of whom twenty thousand are rebel Kentuckians) and rapidly increasing. Wa shall lave bloody work and a good deal of it; but Kentucky, Ohio, Indians, and Illinois (remember that one third of the people of the throe last named States are the children of Kontucklans) will put cut their whole military strongth to repel this invasion, and follow the routed rebels to their utmost den. If the whole of the rest of the loyel States can regain Virginia and hold Maryland and Mussouri, the four States I have named above are a full match for the remaining ten secession State; and if you will compare the facts concerning the four States row rallying against this alrocious invasion with those of the ten most southerly secession States, you will see that I speak soberly. This invasion of Kenlucky was pure madness. It opens along four hundred miles the route for armies into the South, and it makes the secession of Kentucky from the Union surely and eternally impossible. One third part of our population were disloyal, the other two thirds are as loyal as any people that live. This is what I have said continually, and they have heen fearfully tried; they have continually vindicated my judgment of them, and they will do it to the sout. I think God will give us the victory and that the national life of our country will be restored.

As a specimen of the proceedings of Zollicoffer's army, in his invasion of Kentucky, I give von the following experience of my family: On Friday, the 18.h of October, a portion of Colonel Wolford's cavalry, numbering twenty-one, had dined at my house, and after dinner got on their herses and rode lowards London. They had been goes only a few minutes when they were seen returning at a full gallep, pursued by about 100 ing them for having fed the Lincoluites who bad been sent there to kill tham, awearing they were in the house, although told repeatedly that there were no men in the house; one scenndrel of ar officer waved his sword over a lady's head who was in the bouse, thus throatening her if she did not tell where the sobliers were. There is a stairway at each end of the ho se, the building being the stairways from each end of the house, and meeting above fired several times on each other. mistaking their parties for noion men. A plenty

The then picked up a surveyor's compacs, said the supposed that belonged to Wulford's cavalry, an tham it belonged to her busband and requested would carry it to London and if Mr. Slaughter islantified it as mine he would leave it with him rabels were killed and one Union man. On Sat urdiv, the 19th, Zollicofter and bls acmy o phoat is 000 or 1,000 insu came tu my house, an at this place, the fences were lavelled to th ground, thrown down in a few minutes by his men. My wife was directed to take her familofficers promised her that nothing should be in terrupted. She left, but when she roturned the band of thieves and robbers funcied was taker early all taken; every truck, bureau, pree r drawer was broken epon and ransacked opers, notes, and recounts scattered an thrown away, all of the flynr, meel, bacon beef, sugar and coffee, salt, overything establ were taken out of the bouse. They took a let o fattening hogs from the pen, killed the wor nxen, took a large wegon, plough, blacksmith tools, feel and wasted about 800 hushels of core 20,000 pounds of hav, 8,000 or 10,000 bundles nuts, and committed various other depredation One regiment encamped here from Salurday unti-Tnesday. Pheir main force went on to Cami Wildcat, awenring it would not be a breakfus for them, but on'y a snack. On Sunday, the 20th, they marched on toward Wildcat, which is only 10 miles distant. On Monday their attack was made, and on Tuesday they came back with a howl, reported one regiment entirely cut up, only one company remaining. The particular of this fight have been published. My noighhors elnng the road fared no better than I did; thei houses were plundered, stock killed, corn-fields gathered, and fonces burned. Here is a copy of some lines written in penc

THE SECOND KENTUCKY VOLUNTEERS CAMP FRY, CRAB ORCHARD, NOV.

I desire through your columns to say something about the 2d regiment Kentucky Volunteers, commanded by Colonals Speed and Fry, of Danville, Col. Fry commeuced forming his reglinent about the 15th of July, at Camp Dick Robinson, and now has it full. He was one of the first in the State to call for volunteers, and one of the first to get them; but notwithstanding this, and the fact that we have been in sorvice nearly four months, not one cent have we received, while other regiments that are not yet full havn been paid a month s wages in advance. Now this is not fair, for, whon we saw the danger that threatened us; when we aw the troops of the Con'ederacy gathering upon ur borders, we rushed to nrms for our country. ot waiting for the State to be invaded; yet othars who waited for the State to ha Invaded, and others who would not volunteer until a month a pay in advance" was thrust in their faces, have been paid off, leaving the brave boys who first rushed to arms to wait for a more convenient time.
